I went to school with Sheryl and wanted her to know how sorry I was to hear of her mother's death. My mother died 13 years ago and it still feels like yesterday! I know Sheryl and her family will get through this knowing her mother is in heaven. What a great place to be!! Sharon##imported-begin##Sharon Barker Deason##imported-end##

Heaven is sweeter but earth is sadder now that Miss Velma has moved into her new home above. Until we have the joy of being reunited with her, we will miss her charm, her wit, and her sweet spirit. She has been such a testimony of God's grace and sustaining power as she walked a difficlt path during her final years. (Even blindness didn't stop her from making cookies and candy for Joshua during his illness.) Ours prayers are with the family during this time.##imported-begin##The Gruvers ##imported-end##

We are so Blesses to know such an amazing lady. We are sorry it was only for a short time. Her faith in God was an inspiration to us and her loveing hugs each sunday were something to look forward to. We are going to miss her deeply but are glad she is sitting with our Lord and able to look down and see us everyday.##imported-begin##Anthony and Leah Dixon ##imported-end##

It was such a blessing to know Mrs. Velma. She exemplified faith in God, courage and an unyielding will to seek life's best, despite the many challenges she faced. We will truly miss her...

Our thoughts and prayers will continue to be with her family.

Love,
Debra, Kameela, David and Dominique##imported-begin##Debra Elder##imported-end##

We are so grateful for the honor that we have had to know Velma Briscoe. Her faith in God has been inspirational throughout the years. She will be deeply missed at our church, but we thank God that she is now at peace, walking with our Lord, pain free and sight restored!!! Our prayers to the family as well as the church family.##imported-begin##Kirk & Becky Barker##imported-end##
