“ I have nothing but great memories of my aunt Carol. She's my namesake so we know what my parents thought of her . She was big carol and I was stinker, peanut, muffin carol aka little carol. She came up with combination of all my Knick names and it stuck.

When she lived in MN, holidays were often spent at her home in Northfield. The food was awesome and plentiful, as were the laughs. Anyone was welcome and Carol loved everyone. Carol was an amazing combination of being fun, carefree, but she also had it together - her relationships with friends, her children, family were rich and loyal. In a nutshell, she was Sincere. Her love for her family was deep, as is there's for her. She will be missed dearly!

I recall one holiday a gift just said carol on it, she said you open it... I don't recall what the gift was, but I liked it. We later found out it was actually for her. Needless to say as a young kid I was pretty bummed. She whispered to me, when we're done open gifts I have a surprise for you. She reminded me later to go with her and asked if a lollipop might cheer me up and I said yes, so she acted all sneaky as she gave it to me and hung out and talked to me while I ate it. A special memory I'll never forget. She had a houseful if people over and she made time for me. Going to miss you Big aunty Carol!

“ To Carol's family, I am truly sorry for your loss. I have some random memories of this cousin of mine....I remember her when she was in her teens, staying with her Grandmother Myrtle Krysinski (Nonnie) at the Prairie Island house in Winona, MN when she always hung out with Bonnie Wass who lived nearby; I remember her being at the Prairie Island house with Missy and Tessa when they were babies, dressed in adorable white bedtime gowns; I remember 'watching' her for a short while prior to her Mom's funeral and that it was amazing to me that she could identify me by the sound of my voice; and my last memory is seeing her in Hastings at her Dad's 100th birthday party last summer. I will always miss Carol's Mom, Kay, who was my 1st cousin, as she was so sweet, caring and a very smart decorator....I'm sure Carol got her best traits from her Mom. Rest in peace Carol! You were loved! Always a smile on your face! Cousin, Janet Dornfeld, Rochester, MN
