“ I spent 8 years in the penitentiary with Chaney. I was released a couple years before him and have not seen him since that day. I hated to see that he had passed, he was a cocky fellow, but my friend. We spoke occasional about family, but not often at all, sometimes it's too hard to deal with the pain of our mistakes, so we ignore it. But I do know he had a son, same name as him, that he was proud of. He was glad that he graduated and was going to college and had not chosen the same path as him. I am not sure if Chaney has other kids, if so I am sure he is proud of you.

“ Oh Chaney,

My heart was filled with sadness when I heard the news. I know we all have a date but yours came to soon. I know your mom and chad will have an empty place in their heart for ever and ever but maybe if they can take a minute when your having a rough day think of the funniest or craziest time that you spent together and cherish that memory and be so glad that you had each other thru everything.

But as life happens time slips away and before you know it where did the last 20 or so years go ? So my best memories are when Chad & Chaney, Sean & Travis were just young boys being all boys at that but they are all at the stages of growing up and figuring out life.

Well I remember the day you came into this world it was a wonderful day and how happy. Now 4 boys not two but four. You were the youngest but you stayed right up there with them. You four were together from birth I mean each kid was there to greet the next one from day 1.

You guys grew up together: spent every holiday together, vacations, church, fishing, camping, learned how to ride bikes and go-carts, pinball games.

Remember being barefooted and standing up running down the rocks at the Mill. How about getting in the trunk of the car going to the dive-in so we get some popcorn, but we never got caught with all 4 in the trunk.

I have a feeling that Mama Clark and Merk will be there at the gate with open arms to greet you Chaney.

Chad you know I'm thinking of you and your mom thru this bad time in your life.

Love always
Kim-Sean & Travis

“ 971 Harbins Rd Dacula Georgia was home to Chaney Lee, Chad, Alecia, Steve, Paw Street, my myself & our little dog named Sissy. Chaney had a horse named, " Molly", that did not want anyone to ride her and she actually did bucked him off one time. Then there was Chad's horse, " Chester"! We use to ride the horses out into the field across the street and have huge bomb firess with all out friends and everybody would stay all weekend long! The guys put baby oil on every girls seam on the butt of their blue jean's and super glued the zipper's on our purses as the girls would of course put make up on the boys and paint the nails and tone nails! Mom would cook huge meals to feed all us and come Sunday morning she put us all to work to clean up the house! This is where Chaney Lee tried to teach me how to drive a stick shift all day long as Ronnie Juhan let us drive hus car around and around the house! The first time we stoled mom's car and it was raining and the windshield wippers quit working so we tied a rope to one side of the windshield wippers through the inside of the car to the other windshield wipper and as Chad drove me and Chaney would pull that rope back n forth so we could go up to movie theater. We thought we were so cool driving that green Maverick! We adventually moved to Lawrenceville where me and Chaney had bright yellow cars. He had a Dodge, Cornette and I had a Omeg, Oldsmobile both were V8's and didn't have a govener on them. I promise you that! We could put 4 people in the front seat, 4 in the back seat & atleast 8 people in the trunk! Memories are so Beautiful and truly are a priceless gift. I thank God upon Every Remembrance of you Chaney Lee Allen!!!
