

Debra Jeanne Herman

January 19, 1970 - September 19, 2021

Herman - Debra Jeanne Herman age 51 of Winder, GA passed away on Sunday, September 19, 2021. Debra was born in Wayne, Michigan and moved to Stone Mountain, Georgia with her parents and brother at the age of five. She attended Stone Mountain High School and graduated from The Ohio State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Management

She worked at VWR International for 27 years in various departments and was responsible for training other employees. The past two years she was employed by Thomas Scientific where she was a Bids & Contracts Manager. At both companies she was respected by her many friends for her knowledge, work ethic, and caring personality. Debra was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church for over 20 years. She took great pride in singing with the Chancel Choir and occasionally offered her flute talents as accompaniments or solos.

She most recently served as Elder for Children and Youth Ministries. Her passion for the younger congregation was evident when she shared her love of Jesus with them.

Debra delighted in a multitude of activities. She was a true NASCAR fan, bowled a good game, enjoyed hosting parties, and site seeing while traveling. She was very creative and especially enjoyed scrapbooking and designing her own greeting cards. Debra could often be found curled up with a book, completing a challenging jigsaw puzzle, loving on her fur babies, or belting out her favorite Disney tunes. Family gatherings were most important in Debra's life. She was a caring daughter, a fun-loving sister, an extraordinary friend, and most of all an outstanding mother to her three daughters. She will be remembered for her beautiful smile, contagious laughter, strong spirit, and her enormous heart full of love.

Debra was preceded in death by her father, David Hoffman Calhoun. She is survived by her mother, Carol Jeanne Calhoun, Grayson, GA; husband, Michael Glen Herman, Snellville, GA; daughters, Amanda Adams (Scott), Jacksonville, FL; Alison Herman, Hilton Head, SC; Michaela Herman, Winder, GA; brother, Geoff Calhoun (Charlotte), Athens, GA. Comments

“ Debra touched so many lives. She was a great friend and such a comfort when times were rough. She was loved by so many and we will miss her greatly.

And Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. Whosoever that believes in me, shall not perish, but have everlasting life”.

Debra is with God now. I believe that. She’s with her father David. And she is looking down upon all of us and watching over us.
