“ When Brenda and Jerry told the family they were getting married I was just 7 years old. And the story goes I didn't like Jerry, I didn't want him to take my sister away from me. Boy was I wrong...he was the best thing that ever happened to our family and my sister. I always wanted a marriage like theirs. He was always there for me and my children. He was a selfless man, a kind man and a gentleman. The world should have more people like Jerry. I love him and miss him terribly the world will not be the same.
