“ Johnny & I grew up as neighbors on Killian Hill Road back when it was dirt, rode the school bus to school, and would walk or ride a bicycle over a mile to the closest store many times. When I went into the Navy I lost touch with Johnny but daddy told me about Johnny becoming an accomplished electrician and building his own business.

Imagine my surprise when years later (and not too many ago) I was in the Jefferson House Restaurant and heard my name called. Yep, there was Johnny! I soon learned that while he had sold his business, Johnny was still taking classes to learn new activities. But the best thing is that he told me he knew Jesus and because of that we'll meet again!

“ I will miss you JR! You were and always will be my Amazing big brother. I love you with all my heart and soul. I will miss your funny songs and especially the hambone! Johnny liked to make everyone laugh. He was full of joy. He was always such a hard worker. He would do anything he could to help anyone. Now its your time to rest in peace, as all of us that knew you will miss your sweet smile dearly. You will now get to be with mom and Richard the ones you missed dearly. Give them a hug for me. I will see you and them one day. Until we meet again! Love you Debora

“ I loved “J.R.” As a lot of us called him. He taught me everything I know about electricity. Old times at Tribble Mill. We'd load that truck at 4:30 every morning getting ready for the day. I remember he had bought twenty something chickens after the barn was completed (Where the supplies were kept along with his Harley and Eldorado). Well, the chickens got in the loft and crapped on his Harley! We stayed home ALL day! Johnny, shooting chickens! No joke. He was indeed a character. He built that barn , told me that he'd build me an apartment in it (He did) , he built 2. However, it went to Richard and another as I left out on another adventure. I had promised J.R. that after I returned home last year, I'd come visit. Unfortunately, circumstances and life didn't allow. I'll never forget. I certainly hope to see him and honor that promise one great day with our Lord and Savior. May you forever Rest In Peace . J.R. Thanks for everything. You were the man! Until we meet again... I love you Brother. Always.

“ Johnny could tell stories about experiences which could be sad or make you laugh. A person who could build a house from the foundation to completion. He traveled many paths. He received his GED and completed some college classes. Johnny did not hesitate to help someone in need with a place to sleep or food to eat. I remember he rebuilt a 327 engine in a 57 Chevy and then drove the car like no tomorrow. His first name was our fathers middle name, and Lee was our Grandfather' Ragsdale's middle name. He knew many people. Rest In Peace my brother. May peace and love always be with you. James

“ I have known Johnny ever since he moved to Jefferson. He and my husband Alfred were fairly close. Alfred passed away on 3/12/2020, and Johnny was the first to come see about me from the neighborhood. He seemed to be a pretty good friend and neighbor. Rest In Peace friend, you can now be with your momma, and brother again, for you sure did miss them! To all of his siblings I am very sorry for your loss!

I know how hard it is to lose your family members, especially siblings!
