“ A poem written by my DAD, Richard "Big Red" Lammons

"TOGETHER AS ONE"

FOR A YEAR WE REMAINED A FIGURE OF ONE; THEN AFTER A YEAR, ALONG CAME OUR FIRST SON.

A SYMBOL OF PRIDE AND HERITAGE THAT LAST
A LIFE THAT CONTINUES TO PRESENT FROM PAST.

THIRTEEN MONTHS LATER IT ALL HAPPENED IN A WHIRL,
GOD HAD GIVEN US A BEAUTIFUL BABY GIRL

WITH THE SPIRIT AND LIFE TO BRIGHTEN EACH DAY,
SHE AND HER BROTHER CHASED ALL THE CLOUDS AWAY.

FOR A FEW YEARS WE REMAINED A CIRCLE OF FOUR,
OUR LIFE FULL OF HAPPINESS, WE COULDN'T ASK FOR MORE.

TILL CAME A SURPRISE, UNEXPECTED, BY FAR
WE WERE TO RECEIVE ANOTHER BRIGHT SHINING STAR,

ALONG CAME OUR THIRD LITTLE BUNDLE OF JOY
GOD HAD GRANTED US ANOTHER BABY BOY.

NOW WE ARE FIVE AND OUR LIFE HAS BEGUN,
FIVE HEARTS DETERMINED TO COME "TOGETHER AS ONE".

“ My name is Richard Greene I am a retired UPS driver in Columbus Ga. I worked with Richard when he started out, until he got into Management, eventually having to go to Atlanta to work. He was a hard working young man at the time wanting to move up in the company. He was real easy to get along with. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ May God's peace and eternal love surround the Lammons family and friends. I retired from UPS and knew Richard when he was the UPS Center Manager in Waycross, Ga. He was truly a gentle soul and a great man. Richard is in good hands and is now at peace and rest in heaven! I am thankful our paths crossed in this life.

“ IN MEMORY OF MY FATHER

No more pain, no more sorrow, for Dad is at rest with our Father in Heaven. If you ever had the pleasure of knowing my father you would have know three simple truths; 1) Dad loved Alabama football and the Crimson Tide. You could say he was a fanatic and I come by my love of the Tide honestly. 2) Dad loved his family and there is nothing he would not do for them to ensure their well being and happiness 3) Above all else, Dad loved my mother “The Queen”. They shared a bond you seldom see today. I have always been amazed at their love through the years especially during the last 12 years as Dad battled cancer. No matter the procedure or surgery, the first thing he would do when he woke was ask for his baby “The Queen”. I was looking through some old email earlier today and I ran across this email Dad sent out some time ago about how to explain death and thought I would share it again.

~DEATH~

WHAT A WONDERFUL WAY TO EXPLAIN IT .

A sick man turned to his doctor as he was preparing to Leave the examination room and said,

'Doctor, I am afraid to die.

Tell me what lies on the other side.'

Very quietly, the doctor said, 'I don't know..'

'You don't know? You're, a Christian man,
And don't know what's on the other side?'

The doctor was holding the handle of the door;

On the other side came a sound of scratching and whining,

And as he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room

And leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said,

'Did you notice my dog?

He's never been in this room before.

He didn't know what was inside.

He knew nothing except that his master was here,

And when the door opened, he sprang in without fear.

I know little of what is on the other side of death,

But I do know one thing...

I know my Master is there and that is enough.'

Thanks to all the friends and family for your thoughts and prayers. Please continue to pray for my mother during this difficult transition. We saw Dad again this afternoon for the final time and I was hesitant at first but glad I did, to see the peace on his face after the past few weeks and know that he was at rest with his family in heaven helped heal my heart. Love you Dad, you will always be the greatest!

“ What a beautiful tribute to your Dad. He was loved by all who knew him. This world lost a beautiful soul and Heaven gained a angel. We continue to pray for you and your family today and the days ahead as you reflect on all your beautiful memories of a wonderful man. Love you all!

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Praying for the whole family. May your memories bring you comfort.

“ My dear friend Mavis and family, Saying I'm sorry is so inadequate at a time like this, we are just lost for words..always remember our thoughts are with you and we share the sorrow in your heart.

Red was one of the finest men that we have ever known (maybe he was the finest),. We have never known of anyone to say anything against or about him (not even when he was dispatching) . To know him was to love him and all who knew him did.

We can't change the way things are, but we can still lend our friendship and love to you, Ann, Rick, Gary and their families. We will always be just a phone call away.

Please know that your loss is shared by those of us who also cared for and loved Red.

With love ,
Bill and Beannie
