“ Just saw this about Lee passing, he was such a good stepfather to me growing up in Titusville Fla. Some of the best memories with Cindy, Mike and Walter.

“ Lee was a dear friend of my father, Louie Johnson, of Decatur. Lee, my father and I all shared a great love of racing and went to many races together. I thought the world of Lee as did my Dad. He was a pall bearer at my Dads funeral. They finally get to talk racing again! God bless you Lee and everyone in your family. Danny Johnson

“ Lee Goddard is without a doubt one of the most interesting gentlemen I have ever had the pleasure to know. He cared about other people, no matter who they were, helped his fellow man when he could, and was always looking for a way to help someone else. I loved for him to sit and talk about the past with my husband. They were friends all their lives. I loved Lee like a brother and will miss his wit and humor greatly. He was one of a kind.
