I just found out that Aaron has passed. I was there when his mom was pregnant with him, when he was a kid and an adult. He grew up to be kind, funny and one of the most decent men I've ever known. Michelle did a great job raising him. He had all of the qualities of a great nurse. I don't know what happened, but my heart is broken. I'm so sorry. It truly is a tragic loss.

“ I recently returned to Facebook, and with today being Veteran's Day it dawned on me to find Aaron and wish him well. Finding this hurt my heart. I only knew Buckley for a short time in 2010, but he was such a big personality he left a lasting impression on me. My deepest condolences to his family and loved ones.

“ I heard about Aaron’s passing yesterday through a friend that worked with him at Emory before he started Wellstar. I only knew him for a few months but, the impact he left on me as I’m finishing up my own medical career journey will never be forgotten. I’m honestly still in shock and disbelief. My heart and prayers go out to his grandma. The times we talked he often mentioned her with a giant grin on his face. He called me a few times as he was heading her way or outside in the yard we would laugh about grandmas food always being the best food ever and that he’d better take a to-go box. I’ll def miss Aaron and the way he motivates me to do the best I could to finish my degree. The world truly lost a real one. - Shelisia

“ I just learned about Aaron’s passing this morning and I am still numb in disbelief. Whenever I come to work and Aaron sees me, he always says “Hey Obi !” with a smile. Whenever I am to get report from him to receive his patients, I always found his patients or their family members either smiling or laughing. I don’t often see people who are sick or their family members smile or laugh. Aaron did that to them. I have been missing Aaron’s presence in our organization and asked a co-worker this past Monday where he was. I was told he went to another healthcare organization. I did not know that he passed away this Monday. I am so so sorry for your lose. If I miss him this much knowing him for such a very short period of time, I can’t imagine what you all are going through as a family. May his soul rest in peace and may God bless all of our veterans.
