“ I just learned of your passing. You were one of the first friends I made when I moved to Georgia and to Gristmill Lane in the 9th grade. You were such a goofball. I remember hanging out in a friends yard and I was showing off climbing a tree and trying to hang upside down. I fell flat on my face and you called me brown nose because of the dirt on my face. Sorry we lost touch. You were always kind to me.

“ You were my boyfriend in 6th grade and shaped so many of my budding interests and opened up my mind in so many ways. I will never forget meeting you at Gwinnett Place Mall and being so excited that you asked for my number and. Even though we lost touch many years ago I still think of you at least twice a month. It's very sad to hear this news and my heart breaks for your family.

“ My friend and brother, I miss you dearly. There isn't a second that goes by that I don't think of you. But sometimes we are called home before our time, for whatever reason; however; you my dear were called home for a specific reason that only God knows. Always remember you were and are loved and you will not ever be forgotten.###imported-begin###Stacy C. Darracott###imported-end##

“I hope today along with every other day. You are shown you are appreciated, loved and also reminded how wonderful you really are...” these were your words to me on Mother's Day. I just wish you knew how appreciated, loved and wonderful you really were. It breaks my heart to even write the word "were", because you still are all of those things to me and will always be. I will miss your words of wisdom, your silly jokes, your infectious laugh, and that stellar smile. You changed my life in so many ways and made me feel loved and worthy, I would give anything in the world to have been able to do the same for you. I hope you are smiling right now and I hope you are dancing in Heaven. Promise me a dance when we meet again dear friend....I will never ever forget you Aaron, you have a spot in my heart with your name on it and my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy for your much loved family and friends because you were the best of the best and you will be missed by all. See you in my dreams guy ;) Love, -*Caitlin##imported-begin##Caitlin Paul##imported-end##

“ *The greatest quality a human can possess is to bring out the greatness in others and to Aaron this was his lifes mission. To help those in the dark use their own light to find their way. You were my best friend, my confidant, my soul mate, my love and you stole my heart. I wanted to spend the rest of our lives together. I wanted so much for you to continue living your dream of making music and all your hard work and talent will never be forgotten. I know your music will live on through everyone it touched, through your lifelong best friend and brother, and you did complete your mission here my love...you left this world a better place, you made me a stronger person and you will always have a piece of my soul as you told me a piece of yours was mine. Ill never love anyone the way i love you, no one will ever understand the depth of our love. Until I see you again my love, you will be in my heart for eternity.
