“ I knew Adam as a child. His step sisters, Jodi and Robyn are cousins of mine. My family often came out Brooklyn from Massapequa, Long Island. I remember we used to play "punch" ball in the drive of the apartment complex for hours at a time.

“ Adam was somewhat of a role model / father to me and i will never forget him! I doubt anyone of us could he's a gem. He was an amazing father & husband he always spoke very highly of his family. He was my only friend and one to be considered family i will never forget what he did for me when i was down and helped my family. Adam was the type of person who could turn your tears into a smile let us never forget that and carry him with us in our hearts and tears as we mourn his path to ETERNITY he will forever watch over us and keep us safe!! He will forever be with you girls. He will continue to live thru his daughters Kacey & Rachel. As i know it will be very difficult thru your journey but stay strong bc thats what you're father would want! I hate how you left us But at least you are no longer suffering my friend! ! Everytime i think of Rachel i cant help but to cry as i could see her fathers chararistics BURSTING THRU. And kacey your daddy loved you guys to the moon and back. In sickness you guys kept him smiling whether you knew or not! We all lost a family member here and an amazing person. He was an angel taken too soon from us god called for an amazing soldier and Adam is what we got!. Rachel i see his strength and intelligence in you everytime you came by the bank to make a deposit. It is a ruff time for everyone right now and my prayers and condolences are with you and Mrs. Zeisel and the rest of the family. “ Adam and I grew up together running around the streets of Brooklyn. We met at the JCH when we worked there for the summer. We were 14. Everyone loved Adam. He had a quick sense of humor and always a smile on his face. Adam introduced me to my first boyfriend. We took drivers education together. He was always driving faster than we were allowed. He was always very hardworking. I got him a job counting inventory. He got me a job at the Ave U movie theatre where he was the manager at the young age of 17. One night a hurricane hit NY. A few friends, Adam and I were stuck there overnight...it was the greatest slumber party! We had full run of the theatre all night long. Including all the candy, popcorn and soda you wanted!

Adam was my friend, my cheerleader thru those awkward teen years. All he wanted was to find love, and have a family to love. I'm so glad that dream of his came true. I have not seen Adam in 30 years. We reunited thru the help of Facebook a few years back. I was so happy to see how well he was doing. Now thru Facebook to find out about his passing. May this special person who has never left my heart for 30 years rest in peace.

Forever my friend,

Melissa aka Snozelbot.....(a nick name Adam called me)

“ Adam was one of the kindest most understanding people I knew. He would do anything to help who he could. His sense of humor made it easy to work for him every day. He will be missed an although he isnt here I will never forget his great personality and all the times he turned my sad days into laughs. He was one of a kind. 🙏 R.I.P my friend 😊
