“ I met Aiden when he and Wesley were in 2 Nd grade together. Wesley and Aiden always stuck together in class, lunch and on the playground. Aiden would always come up to me when I helped in class and say hi and tell me how cool Wes was . When Aiden moved into Ms Power class this year , I remember Wes getting into the car and was like yep mom the bros are back together this year and I knew by his smile it meant Aiden. Then football season started and once again he and Aiden were together on the same team. After every practice they would stay a little late and when they were done he would walk over to me and hug me with all the sweat and stink . Lol
Aiden you will be missed a lot and never forgotten. Thank you Aiden for always being there for Wesley.

Love to your mom, dad and brother.

*Always in our hearts,
Cathy and Wesley King*

“ We all miss Aiden and he was a huge part of A LOT of peoples lives and I belive he is happier than ever looking down on us. I know how hard it is to loose someone and this was another level of loosing someone. I know it is hard but just look at the positives. Keep moving forward and know he is loved. Know the comunity is here for all the Kimseys.
God Bless.

“ *Tasha and family,
I was heartbroken to hear the news of your sweet child passing away. I cannot image the grief that you are feeling right now. The only words of comfort that can be shared right now is that he is with Jesus, our Lord and Savior and because of your faith you will be reunited with him one day. I pray that God will cover you in the coming days and years with only the peace and comfort that He can give. I have been and will continue to pray for you as you mourn his loss here on earth. I never met your precious child, but reading all the tributes he was one special child. I pray your memories will help carry you through this time.*

Tasha and family I can't imagine what you are feeling, but let me share my heart-felt condolence, I hope today and always your loving memories bring you peace, comfort and strength, I am at a loss for words during this sorrowful time, please know that I am thinking of you and praying for peace and comfort, it is not the length of life, but the depth of life like a bird singing in the rain let grateful memories survive in time of sorrow, those we love can never be more than a thought away, for as long as there's a memory they live in our hearts for ever.

“ Todd and Natasha - I can only imagine the agony you are feeling right now, the sense of this huge hole that will forever be in your life. I was crushed when I heard this, and I hurt with you. I am praying hard for you during this incredibly difficult time. May the Lord who is intimate with pain, wrap His loving arms around you, and may He help fill that hole with His enduring love and the promise that Aiden is in glory with Him and that you will be reunited one day. I only had the privilege of meeting Aiden a couple of times, but between that and the amazing and hilarious stories Natasha would share with us at work about him, I know that he was a rare treasure. Absolutely full of life in every respect. I would say that Aiden probably took a bigger bite out of life in his short 10 years than many people do in 70 or 80 years. He will be so very missed. But may the memories of how much he enjoyed his family and life itself be of some comfort to both of you and his brother.
