“ ✨ Aiden's Gentle Light ✨

*He walked this world with kindness,
A softness in his smile,
A heart that reached for everyone,
And made each step worthwhile.*

*He lifted others quietly—
No need for grand applause.*

*Now days feel dimmer, quieter,
The world a shade less bright,
For one who shone so naturally
Has stepped beyond our sight.*

*We'll miss his laugh, his caring ways,
His spirit warm and light.*

*Yet even in our sorrow,
One truth remains so clear—
His love is still our companion,
His memory always near*

I will see you again my sweet grandson.

“ I’m still trying to process the fact that you’re gone. You were one of my best friends when we were younger, and some of my favorite memories will always be the little things like getting milkshakes on Wednesdays, watching fireworks on the 4th of July, and swimming at Hard Labor Creek.

You deserved so much more time. I’m so grateful for the memories we made and the friendship we had.

Rest easy. ☐

“ I have so many memories with you. And so many pictures. Before the chaos it was Aiden, Phillip, Haven, and Jessica at 12-16 years old just trying to navigate through this crazy life. Sharing our habits, creating crazy memories we will carry with us for a lifetime.. I’ll see you in another life time, a better lifetime. Rest easy my friend..

“We are struggling to process this sudden loss; it feels impossible that someone who was such a fixture in our lives is gone. He was like a son to me—from church trips and skating rinks to staying in our home, he was always a respectful, kind soul. I am so grateful for the unexpected phone call I received from him just a day before this tragedy. Hearing his voice one last time is a memory I will carry forever. Rest in peace, kind soul.”

“In loving memory of my beautiful grandson, Aiden. He was more like a son to me. He was a beautiful soul taking way too soon, but God has a plan for all of us and his timing is always perfect. We might not understand in this life, but we will in the next. We have the assurance and a promise of God, those who believe in and love him and put trust and faith in him that we will all be reunited one day in heaven with each other. This is what I have. Looking forward to seeing my beautiful grandson again always know I love you, Aiden and grandpa will see you again one day.”

“ *My hiking Buddy and friend.
I'll always love keep Aiden in my heart and remember the kind and beautiful soul he was.
Prayers for all who love him.*
