“ Love you always thinking of you now you can RIP & reunite with your dad we just recently found out about Vernon passing no one ever told us or invited us to his funeral. We found out by other people not by family. But they were never really there for us anyway... not even when my dad was alive. Love you you didn't deserve the hand you were dealt we are all thriving and missing you. You would be so proud 💕

“ Dearest Helen, Vernon, Barry, and Family,

I cannot begin to express how sorry I am to hear of the loss of your beloved son, brother, and father. He was such a fine, good, kind and caring man, loved by so many. I hold many fond memories of Alan very close to my heart and am deeply saddened by his passing.

The overwhelming heartbreak you feel at this time is unfathomable. However, I pray that you may take some measure of comfort in the knowledge that Alan is resting in the Kingdom of our Heavenly Father. Forever enveloped in His mighty arms in the place where all pain and suffering cease and eternal bliss begins. Paradise. That being said, although our minds acknowledge this, it is so incredibly difficult to convince our aching hearts that our cherished loved one is no longer, physically here, beside us. To converse with, hold on to, laugh and love with. For this, my heart breaks, for all of you. Please know that I am sending all of my prayers, love, and support at this arduous time.

*All my love,

“ To Vernon, Helen and Barry. I am so sad to hear of the passing of Allan. Just know that you all are in my prayers. I wish I could be with you during this time of sadness but for health reasons I cannot attend the service. My memories of both Allan and Barry and our kids Angie and Eddy growing up together are so precious and have always had a special place in my heart. WE used to have some fun times together. I know your hearts are heavy but just know God will comfort you today in in the days to come. Praying God will put is arms around you and bring you through you loss and replace it with wonderful memories. God Bless and Love to you all. Ellen Anglin
