“ I remember when I first met Alan. He came to BellSouth where Nicki worked (and myself) and I remember him carrying her books like in high school. Yellow Page books that is. Lol He was helping her on the job. Then after Nicki retired they had an antique shop, Nickalain. (Not sure of spelling) that happened to be in my grandparents house in Old Towne Lilburn. I used to drop in and chat with Alan from time to time. Then Nicki helped me to get on at ARS. They had some nice parties, where again, I spent some time with Alan and Nicki. Iam sorry to hear of his passing. Nicki, I know how much you are going to miss him, but you have a great support system. Love you. Pamela Alavi

“ I will miss greeting you in my best British accent "Eeeello Alan!" Coming over ringing the doorbell over and over and over just to hear you ranting while you come unlock the door. Not sure I could ever eat a Yorkshire pudding without remembering all the times you made them for us. You loved my furkids Muncie and Khloe and they loved you right back. Thank you for everything you did and most of all for being mom's best friend. You will be missed.
