“ Although we were unable to attend Alan's memorial service, we want his family to know what an honor and pleasure it was to work with him. Both Richard and I had that honor and we are so very sorry to hear of his passing. May the Lord comfort the family and provide peace knowing Alan was an outstanding person and agent, resting comfortably in heaven. “ I knew Al as a fellow young FBI Agent in both Omaha and Milwaukee, during the very early 1970's prior to his transfer to Atlanta, Georgia. Regretably, I was unable to maintain contact with Al over the ensuing years, but I remember his as a gentleman with a very easy smile and a quick wit. My sincere sympathies go out to his family.###imported-begin###Mike Hanley###imported-end##

“ Alan and I were classmates at the FBI Academy. After graduation, I regret we didn't stay in touch more often than we did, but when we did, we shared experiences and many good laughs. Alan was a honorable and good man. He served his country well and I know has a special place in heaven.
