“ Alexander was my brother, he was hilarious to say the least. He loved his video games and riding his RZR. He loved his family and friends. He was super smart, which made me envy him for his ability to retain information. He was and will always be a part of all of us. He is now our families angel.

“ Alex you lit up the world while you were here. You will remain with us forever. Now that you have your wings and you are in heaven, you will light up heaven and earth. We will miss you but you will forever be in our hearts and minds.

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to Alex's family and friends. Alex had a sweet spirit and I enjoyed having him in my art class. I will always remember how his eyes would light up when we talked about games and anime. My heart is broken for this untimely loss, but a sweet memory of a gentle soul will remain with me for a lifetime.

“ Extending our deepest sympathy to the Postell family and friends during this devastating time of loss. Although we never had a chance to meet Alex in person, we felt we knew him through our son and how he spoke of him throughout their short time at RMA together over the summer and the brotherly bond made in Alpha Company. Our hearts ache for your family, but know without a doubt, Alex’s memory will live on in the hearts of so many he left behind. Praying for peace, comfort and strength as you face this tragic loss.
