You will be missed! Even though I got to meet you under trying times while you were at Egleston, you and the battle you were fighting made a large impression on me and how I live my life. “ Words will never be able to express the joys that Alex brought to us all. I miss his smile, his humor and his candor. The only peace that calms and delivers us is the peace that Alex has now with the Father in heaven. I'm thankful to have known him and feel blessed by this remarkable and sincerely positive family.##imported-begin##Crista J##imported-end##
