

Alice Elizabeth Monroe

November 15, 1917 - August 11, 2008

ELIZABETH S. MONROE-Elizabeth S. Monroe, age 90 of Lawrenceville, Georgia, formerly of Longwood, Florida died early Monday morning August 11, 2008 from complications of Pneumonia at Embracing Hospice-Inpatient in Snellville, Georgia after a brief hospitalization. Born in Choccolocco, AL to Jeanette Emily Hughes Scarbrough and William Branson Scarbrough. She grew up and attended High School in Jackson, Alabama. Lib was predeceased by her parents, brothers, William B. and Forrest R. Scarbrough, sister Jovita "Skeet" Nunnally, first husband Hugh Kyle Davis, second husband Darrell W. Monroe and her youngest grandson Bradford Morgan Davis. She is survived by her daughter Alice Elizabeth Davis, son Reagan Kyle Davis and his wife Samantha; mother of her grandchildren Pamela B. Gilmour; grandson Jeffrey R. Davis; her precious granddaughter Kirsten D. Quiceno and her husband Jean-Paul, and great-granddaughters Olivia Jacqueline and Anna Joelle Quiceno who gave her much joy and reason to live the past couple of years. Lib was a member of Sweetwater First Baptist Church in Longwood, FL where she loved her Sunday School Class and never found a replacement for it after her move to Georgia. She was also a Pink Lady Volunteer for many years, most recently at South Seminole Hospital in Longwood, FL where she was recognized for 15+ years of service before retiring in 2006. She was an avid Bridge player and leaves behind many bridge friends in both Georgia and Florida. She will be dearly missed by family and friends. Her body was cremated and interment will occur privately at a later date. A memorial celebration of her life will occur at an undetermined date at this time. Memorials in her honor may be made to Sweetwater First Baptist Church, 3800 Wekiva Springs Road, Longwood Florida 32779; Embracing Hospice 2160 Fountain Drive, Snellville, GA 30078; or the charity of your choice. Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road, Lawrenceville, GA 30045. Please sign online guest registry @ www.stewartfh.com

Tribute Wall

“ Alice Elizabeth Monroe

October 08, 2022 at 11:31 AM