“ I remember this day we ate so many freezer pops I got a tummy ache.. worth it lol! Ally always made everything so much fun and she was such a light. Most of my favorite memories from my high school years were with her, I think we were in 9th grade here. Almost 20 years ago, but somehow feels like yesterday. The good, simple days. You will never be forgotten, Ally.

To My Dearest Cousins Joanne, Donald and Michael, we are sending you our dearest condolences from the bottom of our hearts. Allison was a beautiful young lady with a beautiful heart. May she fly high and always guard us all from up above. Shall the gates of Heaven greet her with serenity and love. We wish we could be there for you during this time, you may be far but always and forever in our hearts. Love always & forever, Angela Blaski & Kids.
