“ Hello Sam and Duane

I just found out about the passing of your grandmother who I always thought was a very dear lady, She always went out of her way to make you feel like you special anytime she was around! I can tell you this she will be missed by all who knew her and for the people who never knew her they have no idea what a special person they missed out by never having a chance to meet Alleyne! I feel that my life was is a little richer by know her and the two of you!

May god bless you

George S, Ellington

Sorry this is late I just moved back from Seattle and just found out of Alleyne's passing.##imported-begin##George S, Ellington##imported-end##

“ Hi, Sam,

I have been looking for you and Duane.

The last time I tried to find your grandparents a few years ago the card came back.

I would love to hear from you...and Duane too, I still miss your mom, and have the picture of the three of you and the doggies.

I have remarried and adopted a little girl.

“ Dear Samantha:

We are thinking of you in the loss of your grandmother. We did not know her but know she was a very special person to have a granddaughter as sweet as you. I know you will find comfort in your loving memories.

Love, Betty and Wheeler##imported-begin##Wheeler and Betty Cobb##imported-end##
