“ *Dear Jeff and Chris,
I'm so sorry to have learned of your sweet mom's passing. You probably don't remember me, but I was your babysitter when you lived in Charlotte. You both were wonderful, fun kids, and I enjoyed my time with you... including burning popcorn. Oops!*

When you moved from Charlotte, your mom and I wrote back and forth, but we eventually lost touch. I absolutely adored her, and loved seeing the photos you've shared here.

May she rest in peace.

*Hugs to you both,
Lynn (Clark) Frost*

“ Alma's beautiful spirit will live on in our memories. She had a sparkle brighter than her jewels and dresses that her son carefully selected for her to wear at the swing band performances. We imagine that she again dances with Charlie to their favorite tunes. Love and condolences to Jeff and her many admirers. Laura and Stephanie

“ Jeff, I am so sorry to hear of Alma's passing. She was always a light, and a constant presence at our AFB performances. It was great to get to know and love her. I'm sorry she was unable to attend the get together in June when I visited Atlanta. I was looking forward to seeing her. I'll cherish the memories of her over the years. Jeff, you were a great son, and she adored you. Much strength and love to you.

“ I am going to miss you dearly, my second mother. We met in 2004 when you and I carried the banner for the Atlanta Freedom Marching Band. We bonded immediately and over the years I became your surrogate son. I loved nothing more than cooking for you and always enjoyed the fun times we shared. We laughed and sang together so many times that I lost track over the years. You were always looking out for me and treated me so kindly. The world is a lesser place without your sparkling spirit. Love, Joe and Drakie

“ It's hard for us to grasp that we will not hear you singing or see your smile again. To share a laugh over a good glass of wine or wonderful meal. We love you and will miss you dearly. Jeremy, Ron & Hunter.
