“ Amanda you will forever be missed, you have always been an amazing mother, an amazing friend that always had a smile on your face and would encouragement everyone no matter who it was or there situation. And the love and relationship that you and Andy have is so deep and strong that half the world will never experiece anything close to it. You could tell that y'all each other without a word spoken. Y'all were a power couple and amazing parents, and loyal to all your friends and would help anyone without hesitation. Fly high freebird, fly with the angels in Peace and live pain free. Forever Loved,
