“ To the dear Kozak family: As a 30-year-frontline voice for domestic violence prevention awareness education, and having experienced such a loss as yours, I can only offer my deepest sympathies for all of you at this most devastating time in your lives. I did not know Amity but was struck by her picture in the AJC on Sunday, June 3; and, once again, that familiar sinking feeling reoccurred upon reading where donations, instead of flowers, should be sent in her name. Respectfully, I would like to request the privilege of including at least one page, if not more, dedicated to Amity in my upcoming book, "Nobody Knows." Please do not hesitate to contact me via email and if there is anything I can do to assist your family in any way. I would be most honored to do so. You are in my thoughts and prayers, and I am so very, very sorry for your loss.

“ I didn't know your beautiful daughter.. your precious sister and friend. I do, however, know your grief. My beautiful sister, Jennifer Barber Corbin, was murdered domestically over two years ago. I, too, graduated from Central Gwinnett a few years ahead of Amity.. as did my sister.

I am absolutely torn to bits by your loss and can so identify with the shock and utter desperation coupled with the deepest grief possible. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I pray that peace finds you in the coming days and years. Grief is a slow process but God has a way of mending the heart. A body may cease to breathe, but the soul travels on eternally.

Again my deepest condolences. Please contact us if there is anything we can offer. We are a family that truly understands.

“ Such an unspeakable tragedy. Senseless. Our hearts are broken and grieve for the entire family. Dennis and I know only our very good friends, Ron and Brad, though we met the incredibly beautiful Amity at Ron's 60th birthday party last year. We had such a nice long and interesting conversation with her then - she was so genuinely nice, articulate, charming and sooo incredibly beautiful. The world is definitely a less wonderful place without her presence and influence on it and us. Our hearts ache for all the family right now: Mom and Dad, the brothers and Dad's partner, Brad. It's all just so sad. This is just wrong. Sending love and light to all of you.

“ I never met Amity, but have heard so much about her from her father, my good friend Ron...so I have a feeling for what a special woman she was.

The Lord only knows why things like this happen, and why some of us are called home to him so much earlier than we understand, but I do believe Amity's spirit soars free now, and that she is in a wonderful place.
