To Those I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me, please just let me go.
I have so many things to do, I leave you now and so;
You must not suffer for my loss or bother with the tears
Just be grateful we shared all these many years;
I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How in return you gave me so much happiness;
I thank you for the love each of you have shown
But now it's time I traveled went on ahead alone;
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must
But know that I am now with the Lord I trust;

It's only for a while that we must be apart
I am there in the memories encased within your heart;
I won't be far, for life will go on some.
When you need me, call me, and I will come;
You won't see me nor touch me, but I'll be near.
Never too far to comfort your hurt or a tear
Listen to your heart...my whispers you'll hear.
All my love around you soft and near.

When your time has come to make your way alone
I'll greet you, smile, and whisper..."Welcome Home."

“ Annie was a delight to everyone she came in contact with! She always had sweet words of kindness and a brilliant smile, which she shared gladly with the world around her. I first met her in the Atlanta LDS Temple, but did not know that she lived in my Ward. The next Sunday Annie greeted me with her smile and asked if I had enjoyed my time in the Temple.
Afterwards she always went out of her way to share pleasantries with me whenever we met.

She touched the lives of so many and will be greatly missed.

May the Lord comfort you during this time and bless your family now and always....

“ I enjoyed knowing Annie for many years both in the English ward and Spanish branch at church. She was a delight. It was so cute how she switched back and forth from English to Spanish when she was excited. She always had a smile on her face and was kind to everyone. She may not have known all of us at church, but everyone knew and adored her.##imported-begin##Lisa Kotter##imported-end##
