

Anastasia Nyemiado Dalmeida

October 17, 1960 - March 19, 2025

With profound sorrow and heartfelt love, in the morning hours of March 19, 2025, Anastasia Nyemiado Mamie Dalmeida — known lovingly as Auntie Mamie — transitioned to be with the Lord in Atlanta, Georgia. Her passing was sudden, leaving an unfillable space in the hearts of all who knew her. More than a mother, sister, cousin, aunt, chef, and friend, she was the cornerstone of her family and community. A masterful chef with decades of culinary expertise and an unparalleled skill for kitchen management, her talent and passion made her an invaluable asset in every kitchen she graced. Grounded in her Liberian heritage, she carried the strength and grace of a matriarch whose love and wisdom shaped generations. Her cooking was more than a skill, it was an expression of love, culture, and community. Her life was a testament to unwavering faith, tireless service, and boundless love. From her devotion to God to nurturing family, Mamie's presence was a light that guided many. Her laughter filled rooms, her prayers uplifted souls, and her acts of kindness left lasting imprints on everyone she touched. She was a woman of action, always putting others before herself and reminding us of all of the power of love in its purest form. Though her departure leaves us in deep sorrow, we find comfort in knowing she is now at peace, reunited with the Lord she served so faithfully. To the many who loved and cherished her, the Dalmeida, Bruce, Gadegbeku, Itoka, and Madison families invite you to join them in celebrating her extraordinary life and honoring the legacy she leaves behind. Kindly wear purple, her favorite color, instead of traditional mourning colors

For those who feel moved to honor Mamie's memory, the family graciously welcomes gifts as a gesture of love and support. To share your blessings, please send to Alphonsus A. Dalmeida via Zelle using mobile#: 678-414-6884. Arrangements are made at Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, Ga 30046. 770-962-3100. “ Mamie my dear cousin, I’m still shocked. It seems like a very bad dream I’ve been trying to wake up from but today confirmed that you’re truly gone from my life when I saw you laying there today. Your passing has left a big void in mine, Reggie and the kids lives. Your gentle spirit and presence will be greatly missed. You told us exactly what was true and on your mind, it was always from a place of LOVE never MALICE. Rest in Perfect Peace Cuz until we meet again. I’ll be coming with my bag of empty containers for you to fill.

Love, Cousin Thelma

“ Aunty Mammie, your memory will be a shining beacon in my heart. Every moment with you was a precious blessing, and I'm grateful for the time we had together. I treasure the memory of asking you to take a photo with me on a ride in California and screaming together, and although you gave me a playful look, you still joined in on the fun with me. Your contagious laughter, sweet shortbread, and special nickname for me, Steph, will be deeply cherished, and I know your legacy will continue to inspire me to spread love and joy.

“ Aunty Mamie Anastasia d'Almeida it's hard to believe you are gone. I'll always cherish the memory of time we shared especially when came to Liberia, our trip to River Gee and Ghana, your laughter was infectious, your wisdom always guided me. You was a thread of vibrant colours, a beacon of light. Your laughter echoed through my life and home. Your wisdom guided my steps. Though your presence is gone, your spirit remains, woven into the fabric of my heart. I will honor your lessons you taught me. The importance of love, kindness and unwavering spirit I love you Aunty Anastasia Mamie d'Almeida and will miss you forever.

My Lovely Cousin, my anchor, a beacon of hope, you left this world without saying goodbye. It is painful, it hurts really bad, but take your peaceful rest under the bosom of Abraham and one day we will meet on that beautiful shore. Rest, Rest in perpetual peace!!

“ To my dearest friend, sister, and cousin,
You were a beacon of light in my life, a source of endless joy and comfort. Every time we spoke or met, I couldn't resist teasing you with jokes—anything to see that radiant smile of yours, the one that lit up even the darkest days. And oh, how your laughter would fill the air, like music that soothed my soul. You were more than family; you were my partner in laughter, and my eternal source of inspiration. I'll cherish your memory forever and hold onto the love you gave so generously.

Rest peacefully, my dear. Until we meet again.

“ Not enough words can describe her kindness, love and endless patience shown to all those she encountered.

I am eternally grateful for your words of enlightenment and encouragement every time we met. March 14, 2025 was no exception.

It is often said...we do not choose our family...but I can surely say...thank God that you are a part of mine.

Rest in love and perfect peace.

“Aunty Mamie, I cherish the short, but precious time we shared with you. Those memories will truly be forever in our hearts. You were one of a kind. Your smile was so infectious. I would laugh so hard when Merton will tease you and you were always laughing at his silly jokes.

Every event and kids graduation, I hosted here in GA, you brought all the pre seasoned items for the grill. The best part was You even brought over healthy options to keep us on track.

Aye Aunty Mamie, you didn't play to surprise us. No pain and we thank God for that. Till we meet again, rest in perfect peace. RIPP “ Mamie was more than a cousin. She was my sister in every way that mattered.

We grew up side by side in the same household, sharing laughter, love, and life.

Her spirit was always light and full of joy. She expressed her love through food, always eager to cook and feed people.

Whenever she visited Maryland, she'd bring me baked fish. She also sent it along with anyone making the trip from Georgia. That was her way: thoughtful, generous, and always caring.

Every year, no matter what, Mamie called me on my birthday. Even if no one else remembered, I knew I could count on her. Now, every birthday, I will be listening for a call from her that I know will never come.

Mamie never forgot a name, face or event from our hometown. Whenever I needed to remember someone or something about Webbo, she was the one I called.

Webbo lived in her memory.

The weekend before she left us, she spent it with me.

When she returned home that Saturday, she called to let me know that she had arrived. At the end of our conversation, she said, "Adjovi", as she always lovingly called me, " I'm going to the 5 o'clock mass, because I'm not leaving my house tomorrow."

Little did I know then that it would be our last conversation and the last time I would hear her voice.

I will miss you more than words can say, my cousin, my sister.

I love you deeply, but God loves you best.

Rest peacefully, Mamie.

You'll forever live in my heart.

Your sister Patience
