“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. The will of God is always for good and we know he makes no mistakes. The poet A.M. Overton wrote:

He Maketh No Mistake

*My Father's way may twist and turn,
My heart may throb and ache,
But in my soul I'm glad I know,
He maketh no mistake.*

*My cherished plans may go astray,
My hopes may fade away,
But still I'll trust my Lord to lead
For He doth know the way.*

*Tho' night be dark and it may seem
That day will never break;
I'll pin my faith, my all in Him,
He maketh no mistake.*

*There's so much now I cannot see,
My eyesight's far too dim;
But come what may, I'll simply trust
And leave it all to Him.*

*For by and by the mist will lift
And plain it all He'll make.
Through all the way, tho' dark to me,
He made not one mistake.*

“ Dear Jane,

I deeply regret I could not be with you at this time. I have been there in thoughts since I learned the sad news. I can't help but think about Andy. In his fight against the disease as well as in his everyday life he will remain a great source of inspiration for the rest of my life.

“ What a great loss of a wonderful man. It did seem that while Andy gave his best in life that the medical community really let him down. The world is a lesser place for his loss, and those who had a chance to know him at all are sad for that loss. Love and condolences to his wife and their families...##imported-begin##Donna Hagerman##imported-end##

“ It was a pleasure knowing Andy since I have been at Winship. It was wonderful sharing an article with him. As he wrote in the article, "faith makes me no longer afraid to face whatever my future is." I believe that he was not afraid and is not afraid now in paradise with God.

Jane, my prayers will continue to be with you as you remember the life you shared with Andy.##imported-begin##Chaplain Pamela Butts##imported-end##

“ Dear Jane and family,
I was so sad to hear from Esta Hostetler about Andy's death, then to read Jane's email.
A special thanks to Jane to share her joy, peace and comfort that she recieved from the Lord as she looked at Andy's face.
We can only imagion the new body that Andy is now enjoying with our Lord. Free from pain and suffering and praising the Lord God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit!
With much love and prayers, Pam##imported-begin##Pam Hostetler##imported-end##

“ We had the pleasure of working with Andy since back in the Big Dutchman days.
Andy was always refreshingly calm and collected in an frantic industry. His integrity never waivered. People all over the world sought him out for his expertise and advice.
Andy was one of the good guys.
God Bless.##imported-begin##Charlie Griffin of Griffin Farm Machine Co., Inc.##imported-end##

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, it need be, you have been grieved by various trials, the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it be tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ, whom having not seen you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, receiving the end of your faith - the salvation of your souls." NKJ 1 Peter 1:3-9. Thank you Andy for your faith in and witness for our Lord Jesus.

“ Andy was a warm, wonderful human being whose generosity of spirit was only matched by his smile! We enjoyed a lot of fun times with him and Jane, who always extended their hospitality by inviting us to their annual barbecue cookoff contests at Stone Mountain where we watched the husband and wife team serve up some great, competitive food. Rob and I got to know Andy very quickly as an extension of our friendship with Jane, and we knew that they were a special couple who truly enjoyed pampering each other with trips, travelling, gifts and fun get-togethers with all their friends. We are devastated to hear of his passing, as we had hoped through Jane's chronicles of his journey with cancer that somehow he would beat it in the end! I know that Jane's life as she knows it will forever be altered by his passing on, but we encourage her to celebrate the wonderful love that they enjoyed together as a couple, which many people are never lucky enough to know during their brief time on this Earth. Andy was a special person who was always generous with his time, his humor, his intelligence, and his courageous spirit! He touched many lives along the way and we feel there was a special reason why we were blessed to have known him. May God bless him in the afterlife and continue to provide blessings to Jane, his family, and his friends as they acknowledge and come to accept his loss during this difficulty time! We love you, Jane!!!imported-begin##Joe Ward & Rob Clark##imported-end##
