“ i am so very sorry for your loss Angela was a beautiful caring compassionate Angel she was always working hard to help the forgotten fur babies - She added me to her group For the love of Baby Girl knowing I loved the name since I lost my Baby Girl last year. We spoke many times on FB helping the fur babies and chatting about our kids and grand kids. She lived for her family and all the fur babies she saved we will miss her and remember her every day.

She was a Angel here on earth and now she is helping all the Angels in heaven - Rest In Peace my sweet Angela ❤️❤️❤️

*Love you Angela,

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Angela was one of the sweetest, women I ever had the pleasure of having as a friend on FB. She worked tirelessly to help the animals that is how we became friends thru the animals she loved so very much. My heart is broken for you as for myself and all of us she touch thru crossposting. She added me to her group "For The Love of Baby Girl" the day she started it, I knew I could always count on her to help share and re-share any precious baby I posted.

I certainly know Angela that you are with God watching over all of us and the precious voiceless you worked so tirelessly to try to help.

You are much missed.

“ Richard, Jennifer and family, I remember when I met Angela when Nancy Cook brought her to a red hat event. Shortly after that we were looking for a Admin Asst at Data Path and she was the first one I thought of. She was a lovely person and I enjoyed working with her and Chuck. Believe it or not, I was just thinking about her yesterday and wondered why I hadn't seen any posts from her lately. She was so proud of her grandchildren and all the work she did with animals and the beauty pageants. A couple of us shared March birthdays and we would always arrange to have lunch together. I am so very to hear about her loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I remember growing up in the Hungry Hill section of MA...and the day I took a lace curtain ad dressed you as a Hindu dancer for the dress up parade ...mom and dad never knew we had so much fun...my fondest memories were when you came home for my children's marriages and Jennifer being in their weddings...the best was my last February as president of the women's club and you came home to give a speech for our membership and we had a major storm....and the night before that Joe and Lee were able to get to the Cape and we all went to eat at the Jailhouse (a real jail)...I have that picture and will cherish it as now you, Joe, Johnny , and Lee are all in heaven...send my love to them and to Mom and Dad...till we see each other again....love you always Ann
