“ To the Concepcion Family, please accept my sincerest condolences. Angelo was very well regarded by everyone who came to know him in his 7 year career at Hill's Pet Nutrition. Not only was he a tremendous asset to our business, but he was a valuable member of our team. He was a very hard working, warm, respectful and caring man who made his customers feel special and part of his circle of friends. He will be greatly missed here at Hill's, especially in Atlanta, where his caring nature made an impression on so many co-workers, customers and friends.##imported-begin##Kyle Bryant - HILL'S PET NUTRITION##imported-end##

“ I would like to thank Angelo's family for all of the gracious comments about the relationship Angelo and I had. I am the one who should be thankful for having the opportunity to learn from Angelo. He shared his positive way of life every day to all of his co-workers. We at Hill's Pet Nutrition will miss him greatly. I personally will miss him as a friend, a mentor and a person that I always looked forward to our next conversaton. Angelo has made a lasting impression on my life which I hope I can extend to those who I meet in the days to come. I will miss you Angelo.##imported-begin##Lane

“ We are saddened to know that one of the greatest promoter of our Schoenstatt Family has been gone but we know that where he is right now we must rejoice for he already made a home run. Our prayers and love remain with you, Lydia and family. You may not quite remember us but we encountered your group twice when we had our Journey of Love. We were impressed by his honest dedication to what our Mother Thrice Admirable wanted from him...a great ambassador he was...thank you, Papo, for your example may we live as you live it ...everyday sanctity...United in our Covenant, Ping and Jojo from Virginia Beach with BJ and Jessica.##imported-begin##Ping and Jojo Camano##imported-end##

“ I only knew Angelo from the gym. He took the RPM class regular, along with a group of us regulars who know each other by name. Friday morning he helped me adjust my bike and we chatted as usual as we rode side by side in the front of the class. He always went out of his way to help others and was a delightful human. I never saw him without a smile on his face. I will miss you Angelo so I know your family and loved ones really will. RIP.##imported-begin##Terri Kaplan##imported-end##

“ Papo was such a special person. How often I would meet him at the Schoenstatt Exile Shrine. He would be leading a group of pilgrims from Georgia, introducing them to Father Kentenich and our Mother Thrice Admirable. I was honored to be a guest in his home and Lydia and Papo visited in mine. what a blessing to know them. I think of him as "Tour Guide of our Mother Mary"

“ I arrived from Milwaukee to the Madison Founder Shrine and learned immediately of Angelo. Every time he came to Milwaukee we seemed to meet at the Exile shrine....we prayed n the shrine on Friday afternoon. Saturday morning we had the 7:00 AM offered for Papo. Then because we had a retreat we had a special Mass offered at 5:00 PM and Fr. Gerold Langsch offered this Mass for Angelo, too. It was almost like we could feel his presence ... Fr Gerold spoke about him.

I also gave Fr. Gerold a Mass stipend for a Mass, so another Mass will be offered as my gift to him and my gift to the family.

We prayed for each other's intentions through the years and I have continued this exchange of prayer the last few days with him, too. We were making plans to have him bring the auxiliary to a new wayside shrine in Wisconsin ... to help the people there experience the power and beauty of the rosary campaign and the spirit of John Pozzobon. I hope we are somehow able to bring this honor to Our Mother and Queen to completion, in his honor, asking for his help from heaven.

Just know that all your suffering and loss is a beautiful sacrifice that you can offer to God for Angelo and for all Poor Souls. Use this grieving as a sacrifice of praise for the Capital of Grace, and as all offering for all departed souls. It is a precious gift when offered to God with all your heart.

And, if you feel too tired out and exhausted to pray with all your heart ... you just climb onto God's lap and rest in Him, you cry with all your heart if you need to...and this is how you love God with all your heart. For God takes us where we are and as we are. In God's heart you can be with Angelo. The love goes on and on ... for "Love is stronger than death." (Book of Song of Songs).

With continue love and prayer for Papo and each of you,

“Papo was a great Mother Thrice Admirable warrior for the Schoenstatt Rosary Campaign, (SRC)one of his many goals was to get people to the Schoenstatt shrine and let Our Lady wrap her arms around them and draw them in. He'd load the buses up and way they'd go to Waukesha, many numerous hrs organizing these trips. He loved life, worked so hard for the SRC and now is an advocate to the Schoenstatt family here on earth, as he works with Fr. Kentenich to bring Our Lady to many more. What a joy-filled Easter he will now have. My condolences go out to his familylove Sally & Kurt###imported-begin##Sally LeRoy AZ Schoenstatt Family ###imported-end##

“My deepest and most sincere condolences to Lydia and family! I have had the pleasure of knowing Papo for many years through our Schoenstatt community. He is a person I really admired for his spirit of evangelization, his commitment to Schoenstatt AND his family, and his personal integrity. Not to mention his sense of humor! I will be there to say "goodbye," knowing that he will continue to be a bearer of Christ from heaven. Just think! Our MTA is thanking him in person! Papo, pray for us all.###imported-begin##Cathy Johnson###imported-end##

“ First, my deepest condolences to all the Concepcion family. I have known Angelo for many years through a ministry at St. Oliver's of which we were both members. But anytime I ever saw him, it was always a hug and asking how I was doing. He always had a smile, and the love of the Lord shined through his eyes. His deep relationship with the Lord was something he easily shared with others. He touched many people so he will be remembered forever. We have lost someone very special but heaven has gained another saint.##imported-begin##Ann Prosek##imported-end##

“ Concepcion Family,

I only met Papo once, but that one meeting made a lasting impression upon me. His passion to bring others to Christ, his love for the Blessed Mother was so powerful that you could not help but be overwhelmed by his enthusiasm. A few times after that first encounter I would call Papo just to chat. That fire was always so alive in him. I will miss him. I pray for your family.
