“ *I am writing as a friend and co--worker of Carrie's. I feel like I know so much about Butch; his personality, sense of humor, and all sorts of little snapshots of his life--like the way he used to wax his moustache while Carrie watched! I only wish I could have known him. My prayers and blessings are with you, especially Shawneen, Patrick, and Carrie, as you have lost your precious father far too soon. “ I've had the pleasure of knowing the Clarici family for the past 20 years and don't know where I'd be without the amazing friendship I've shared with Carrie. I've never met a more genuinely warm and caring family and it's evident that Butch was a guiding light who instilled kindness and warmth in his children and shared that same spirit with all who knew him. To all the Clarici children, you are truly blessed to call him your father and may you hold your memories close to your heart and rely upon them to bring you strength and peace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Leigh Anne Haynie (Adam and Josh)##imported-end##

“ Dear Clarici Family,
I am so sorry for your loss of Angelo. I feel like I know all of you personally as Butch spoke often and so lovingly about you all. I met Butch about 20 years ago when I first got into the Ophthalmic equipment business. He was so good to me and helped me along the way so much.. he was such a great teacher and was always willing to share what he had learned along the way. He was always someone you could count on for a pick me up after a bad day. He would just call you sometimes out of the blue, just when you needed it, like he knew somehow. I will miss his silly Dr impersonations and his wonderful smile and that strong arm around your shoulder and his big laugh. I know he is going to be watching over us all with loving care as he always did. You all will be in mine and Libby's prayers.

“ To Butch’s family: he loved you all so very much and I cannot begin to imagine your loss. In the more than six short years I had the pleasure of knowing Butch and working with him, I always found him to be generous and kind and fun. From the gentle register of his voice to his funny ring tone to his quips, he brought such joy to working with and knowing him. Butch, you will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Cynthia Kozak##imported-end##
