“ *To the entire Beckham family,
My deepest sympathy and may the words of Jesus recorded for us in the Holy Scriptures at John 5:28, 29 provide comfort, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May the many fond memories of your beloved, Anita bring you peace and comfort!###imported-

“ *I loved you with all my heart and soul. My heart is broken.
We shared so many wonderful times growing up and always got caught when we tried to be mischievous.
I'm so thankful that I had the opportunity to spend time with you over the past year and I will always treasure all of our time spent together. Love always Brenda###imported-begin##Brenda

“ I met Anita about 10 years ago when I attended college with her daughter, Rachel. At various family events, Anita was always the light of the party. Her smile was infectious! Always attending to guests and welcoming them into her home. She always put the needs of others above her own. I will never forget when she found out that she was becoming a grandmother for the first time. She was so excited and wanted everyone to know that she would not be called a "Grandma" name. I still laugh at that to this day. She will be missed by friends and family.##imported-begin##Kelly Zavagnin##imported-end##

“ Beckham Family,

We were totally shocked when we heard your sad news today. What we know about Anita was that she was a totally devoted mother to her children. She loved them with all her heart. You will all miss her, but have something that can never be taken away, and that's the memories.
