“ Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jolly and all Mrs. Jolly's family:

I learned from one of my sisters (they still have a house in Denmark) that Mrs. Jolly died in early September, just before her 90th birthday, I believe. I think the last time I spoke with Mrs. Jolly was at the Edisto on Labor Day of last year or possibly the year before. I don't know when she moved to Snellville. I knew you dad better from "back in the day" during those football practice times. But I enjoyed speaking with your mom that day at the river. Was a pleasant time, I trust, for us both. I believe it is Dr. Seuss who is credited with, "Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory."
