

Anna L. Otts

July 13, 1970 - March 30, 2021

Anna Lewis Otts, 50, our precious wife, daughter, mom, sister, and friend went to be with her Savior, Jesus Christ, on Tuesday, March 30, 2021. Anna was born on July 13, 1970 in Cleveland, MS, and was the oldest child of George E. Lewis, and Betts F. Lewis.

She was a member of North Metro First Baptist Church in Lawrenceville, GA. Anna attended church throughout her childhood and at the age of 16 she gave her life to the Lord.

Anna met Kelly, the love of her life, after high school and they were married in 1992. The Lord blessed them with three wonderful children, Lindsey, Abby, and Tyler. Next to her relationship with Christ, her family was the most important thing and she dedicated her life to homeschooling her children and providing a loving Christian home as they grew up.

Anna was preceded in death by her brother, Chris Lewis; her grandparents, George F. Fondren, Sr., Yvonne Fondren, George Lewis, Sr., and Kate Lewis. Surviving Anna are her husband of 28 years, Kelly, her children, Lindsey Otts, Abby Otts, Tyler Otts, and Jordan Vining. She also leaves her dad, George Lewis, Jr., her mom Betts Lewis, her brother Trey Lewis (Joanna), her niece Hannah Lewis, her nephew Evan Lewis, and many cousins and friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Monday, April 5, 2021 at 2 p.m. with visitation at 1 p.m. at North Metro First Baptist Church, 1026 Old Peachtree Road, NE, Lawrenceville, GA 30043. The service will be officiated by Anna's pastor, Dr. Frank Cox.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to North Metro First Baptist Church or the American Heart Association in her memory. Tim Stewart Funeral Home in Lawrenceville, GA is in charge of the services.

“ It should be easier.....but it's not. I miss you, sweet girl. Heaven must be so beautiful, and I'm sure you are walking humbly on streets of gleaming gold. you are still so loved and thought of every day. Seems I would run out of tears, but I seem to have an endless supply. I love you forever, Anna! My precious baby girl.

“ Seems like just when I think I can go a while without complete sadness, complete sadness overtakes me. Like today when I saw an Equinox turn onto our street. For a split second, I said, "There's Anna...turn around..." I had to pull over and collect myself. Then, not a mile down the street, I stopped next to a black Altima...the man was bald with a beard. My Chris. Today has been hard.
Thank you, Lord, for letting us have Chris for 46 years and Anna for 50. I have to remember that You are standing next to me. And holding my hand.

“ Its been over seven months since you went to be with our Lord. I can't close my eyes without seeing you....I still can't seem to grasp that you are gone. I want to share so many things with you. Like how much of a man Tyler has become. He still has so many childlike ways, but he is so smart and has learned so many new things. We are trying so hard to get through the day....Lindsey works and Abby is doing well in school. Tyler is trying to have a routine and does OK.
I have just been putting one foot in front of the other. Some days are OK, and others are tough to get through. Every day takes me closer to you and Chris. I miss you both so much. Hugs and love, MOM

“ My precious, precious Anna....My heart is still so broken. You were such a presence in my life and an inspiration as to how to live life. You thought only of others, not of yourself. Every waking moment was devoted to your Lord and your children and I am sure when you stood before your Father, you had a crown of many jewels. I know you are using that beautiful voice of yours to fill Heaven with praise and joy for Him! Know that we miss your voice, your smile, your hugs, and your love.

You were the joy of my life since your birth and left a huge hole in my soul.

I can't wait to see you again and run to hug you forever. MOM

“ Anna and the rest of her family became a very important part of my family’s lives when our girls met at our neighborhood pool in Lawrenceville some 15 years ago. After finding out that they were also from MS (and avid Ole Miss fans), we became instant friends.

I love Anna for so many reasons, but the greatest of these is the love and care she gave to my Jordan. My daughter has been a “member” of the Otts family for many years, and I always knew that if she was with Anna— she was safe, loved, and cared for. I am so proud that Jordan had the chance to know Ms Anna and learn about her love for the Lord and others. In my mind, if Anna had been a Disney princess, I always thought of her as Cinderella— humble and kind.

For myself, going over to the Otts to hang out with Anna, Nana, and Chris made my day! Anna, Nana, and I would talk about so many different things, but no matter what we discussed, I always enjoyed their company. I can still hear Anna saying, “Oh, Mama, now, I know you don’t mean that!” Chris and I shared a love of books and author Steven King, and it was so wonderful to find someone who enjoyed reading as much as I do.

Words cannot express the love and feeling of loss I have right now. Anna is one of the kindest, most sincere people that I have ever known, and I already feel like I have a big hole in my life since she will no longer be in it.
