September 11, 1926 - September 3, 2024

ADAMS- Annette Braswell Adams, age 97 of Cleveland, GA, passed away on Tuesday, September 3, 2024. A Funeral Service will be held at 2:00 PM on Sunday, September 8, 2024 in the Monroe Chapel of Tim Stewart Funeral Home. Nowell Briscoe, Ray Hicks, Randy Camp and Steve Brown will officiate. Interment will follow at Rest Haven Cemetery, 200 N. Madison Avenue, Monroe, GA 30655. A visitation will be held prior to the service on Sunday from 1 PM – 2 PM. She was born in Campton, Georgia; Walton County to Mary Lizzie Sorrells Braswell and Willie Hardman Braswell. At the age of two, she moved to Monroe, very ill with scarlet fever and diphtheria, where she lived in the same house for 45 years until her marriage. She graduated from Monroe High School with honors and the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics. She was employed with the Georgia Agriculture Extension as Home Demonstration Agent in Towns and Union Counties after an internship in Fannin County. After furthering her education, she taught Home Economics in Loganville and Monroe. A school yearbook was dedicated to her at both schools. She was a former member of usual education associations, Delta Kappa Gamma an Honorary Teacher Society, Pilot Club, Monroe and Avon Garden clubs serving in various capacities. Presently, I am a member of Retired Educators, White County, Loganville and Monroe Historical Societies. The White County Rotary Club honored her by making her an honorary member and later with two awards, Woodmen of the World honored her with a Community Leadership Award. She married the love of her life, Eugene Emerson Adams, whom she met in a nursing home where both were regularly visiting a loved one. She moved to her husband's DeKalb County home in Avondale Estates, adapting readily to a new environment and lifestyle. After her husband retired from two full careers; 48 years in banking and 20 years DeKalb County Tax Commissioner, they moved to Cleveland, Ga to their beloved weekend home. They traveled extensively both nationally and abroad. Most of all, their greatest joy was the two of them being together. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother, Ray Braswell and husband. In lieu of flowers, suggested donations will be appreciated by the White County Historical Society, P.O. Box 1139, Cleveland, GA 30528; Loganville Historical Society, P.O. Box 3154, Loganville, GA 30052; Monroe Museum, P.O. Box 506 Monroe, Ga 30655. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 209 South Hammond Drive, Monroe, GA 30655. 770-267-2594. “ Annette was our neighbor on Waterfall Drive and she was our dear friend. We will miss our visits with her. She was so interesting and had an amazing memory for 97 years old. She also had a great sense of humor! Most of all she was so kind and caring. She will be so missed. Sherry and Frank Ciavatta

“ She was the best Home Economics teacher. At LHS early sixties. I still think of her every time I sew. Or make a 1234 cake.

“ Beloved Home Ec. teacher for 2 years, 1972ish. She was strict and fair, my fav memory is her waiting at the door with a ruler to catch boys with hair too long, girls with skirts too short or belly skin showing.

Rest in peace, Miss Braswell, you were one fine, elegant lady and your may your legacy live on.

“ I have fond memories of my favorite Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Annette Braswell Adams. I last spoke to her after my mom passed 5 years ago. Mrs. Braswell (Adams) always kept up with Monroe and Walton County news. She never failed to send a note for my parents wedding anniversaries and when they both passed away. We had a great conversation the last time we spoke, and she told me to make sure I attend her funeral if she left before me. I told her I would be there.
Rest Well Mrs. Braswell Adams, you're loved. ❤️

Annette was my favorite teacher at Monroe High School from 1965-1969. She was also my mentor and my friend. What a joy it was to re-connect with her much later and visit with friends in her beautiful Cleveland home. She was a true southern belle with a sweet soul. I loved her dearly and will forever treasure her friendship!
