I love you more than you will ever know and I am so grateful for every moment I was able to share with you and will forever cherish those memories. You are the true definition of love and you spread it with everyone especially your family. I love you big, I miss you real hard and I will forever have you in my heart.*

“ God is always near to us no matter, the need for him to be close. It's hard to bear the loss of someone dear; especially your mother. Those we hold closet to our heart never leave us. They live on in the love that they have shared with us. My prayers and deepest condolences are with the family currently and always.

“ Mama, it took me a while to put together words on what to say... I'm so thankful that Glenda introduced me to her "favorite girl" as she always says! I will wholeheartedly miss everything, from your charisma, to your "flynness", and can't forget about those delicious meals, you always made time to cook for us. For that I am forever grateful! I know your family will celebrate you and keep your memory alive, and I'll be there every step of the way!
Love always

“ Our mother's heart was so tender and her face was a gentle glow
She was my friend and my inspiration, she was the sweetest mom I knew.

She gave herself so freely to those who shared her life She clearly loved her children with the love that came from Christ

Her eyes were full of compassion her voice was soft and mild She lived for helping others, leaving "heartprints" all the while.

My mother's love was special and grew sweeter with every year God blessed me with an angel; she was our precious mother, dear. Love you Momma Say! You will always be in my heart. AmywhatleyJackson
