“ I met Ansleigh in Chattanooga when it was freezing outside and helped her out many times. She had a smile on her face then and every single time I saw her. We had dinner at Dairy Queen together a few months ago and I will forever cherish that time with her. She was too pure for the world. I loved her like a sister and will miss her dearly. I hate to have just found out about her passing. I am lifting her family and Bradley up in prayer.

“ I was so saddened to hear this news. It was just a week ago i spoke with her and she asked if she could come stay with me in Denver. I told her yes. I took this young lady under my wing to protect her because she was so young and she was like one of my own. I pray you find peace and comfort in the coming days. Always remember you have an angel on your shoulder. My heart is breaking i will never forget her.

“ Dear Leigh Ann, Doug and sweet family...my heart is breaking this week. Praying for all of you during this horrific time. I can't begin to imagine your pain but lifting you to the Healer of hurts...Jesus. May His name be lifted up as we grieve and may others come to know Him through the word of your testimony. I love all of you and am hurting with you, dear family. Love always, Aunt Cheryl
