“ Our dear brother Tony,
We're yet to recover from the shock of your exit. Our gentle lion, gracious and unassuming, On July 29th, as we fellowshiped in your home, we saw how you were responding well to the new treatment, but we mortals didn't know Heaven had a different agenda.
Rest in blissful peace beloved Tony until we sing our songs again in glory.
May God comfort your wife and lovely children, and entire family home and abroad. The good seeds you sowed will be a beautiful inheritance for them. We will always remember your example to the household of faith. Adieu!

“ Brother Tony Njoku will be sorely missed by the Men's Fellowship at the Global Outreach Church, 1294 Braselton Road Lawrenceville, GA. His erudite contributions during Fellowship gatherings remain memorable. We can fully identify with the Apostle Paul that "for me to live is Christ, to die is gain." Bro Njoku lived with his Brethren, to God's glory. He now gains companionship with the heavenly throng above. We are comforted that his eternal rest is secure with Jesus, our Lord, Savior, and the Christ. May we be instructed by his lifestyle of devotion to the Lord Jesus
