“ Artie was one of my dad’s best friends from college. We didn’t see him and Lydia a lot because of distance and I’m sure because my parents were always busy with our (kids) activities on the weekends. We always looked forward to seeing you both, though, and knew it would be fun. I remember going to your house in NH when I was little and playing duck hunt on Nintendo. The first thing I think of when I think of Artie is when I had to be about 3 years old, you were at our house and I was crying/whining/complaining because my “blankie” had just come out of the dryer and I didn’t want it to be hot. Artie grabbed it and stuck it in the freezer and a few minutes later I was so happy! I remember thinking it was the best idea ever and because I couldn’t reach the freezer I asked to have my parents put it in there all the time after that. I pray for comfort and peace for you, Lydia, and the rest of his family. Love, Katie (Bostiga) Stephens

“ Art was a good man and a good friend. Although we only knew each other for a fairly short time, he was always upbeat, and a pleasure to be around. And he was so knowledgeable on so many topics. A tragic loss, way too young. Our condolences to Lydia and the family.

“ Lydia, I’m sure going to miss Artie and the fun he brought to everything he did. If he was around you couldn’t help but laugh and have a great time. Wes and I had so much fun when we got together with you both in Arizona. The picture from the bar with the hilarious barstools sits on Wes’s nightstand so we remember that visit often. And who could forget our wedding? Thank you for making the trip to Colorado. Getting to visit with you both and hear stories from the college days that I had never heard before made for such a memorable visit! He was such a good story teller! It felt incredibly special to have my dad’s best man at our wedding. Art will be greatly missed but Lydia please know you are always welcome wherever Wes and I call home. Much love and big hugs, Kellie

“ Rest in peace, my friend. The breakfast bunch will greatly miss your good humor, common sense, and knowledgeable insights into so many things. You've left a big void amongst your sad Arizona friends.

“ In May of 2014 I was walking up my driveway in Carefree when I heard a clickity-click of paws on the Asphalt and suddenly this dingo dog was upon me...a bit startled I then heard this chuckle from further down the road and the statement "She likes you..don't worry"

So began my association and friendship with Art ..Kathy and I shared many times with Lydia and Art, from the gem and mineral show in tuscon and a visit to the air museum there to Tombstone, Bisby, Crown King, Sheepsbridge, numerous concerts..and not to forget many movienights..laughing hilariously at older movies... Always assisted me with various projects...really rewarding when one time he forgot to re-connect the circuit board in my pool heater...Only mistake he ever had I knew of...

We felt a huge hole in our neighborhood when Lydia and Art moved to Georgia, ...spoke with them for hours at a time but missed the face to face. He was kind enough to share with me the trials of his new Ferrari (Fuel Tank Scenario) and the ongoing remodeling of their new home before he passed.

Kathy & I just returned from a day on the Columbia River and thought about Art several times. Truly a good friend, husband, and overall great guy...will cherish the memories..

“ It was just a few weeks ago when you pointed to a boy - sitting on a recliner 15' in the air on South Campus - and said , “I like him!” A few days ago we were together at a 4th of July party and I was so grateful for our friendship and love. I will always be grateful. I can't begin to fathom your grief, but I share it and pray the decades of life, love, and joy shared is a comfort. Love always ~ Toots

“ Artie and Lydia you are and have been family for as long as I have known you which is about 40 years. You have been there for all the important milestones of Richie and mine and all our 4 kids. My heart is so full as I write this. You were always there Artie-someone to count on and call friend. I have so many happy memories of you over all the years- camping up in Maine, coming to our Christening and graduation parties and then weddings. My most memorable time is when you gave me a motorcycle ride -I had never been in a bike- when you came to Kevin's Christening party. I loved your laugh and your common sense and thank you again for just being you! Lydia will carry on your legacy of love. I will never forget you Artie. Love to Lydia and all the Reed family. “ To a wonderful smart, loving, funny man. The day you moved in across the street from us on Mason Rd. in 1982, we all became good friends. You watched our kids grow up. You always had time to do something for them. We had a lot of good times together. You and your laugh will be greatly miss.

“ Dear Lydia, We are shocked and deeply saddened to hear of Art's passing. Peter remembers many animated discussions with Art at Jennifer's house. It was fun to match wits with someone so passionate about science. We Orthodox believe that when someone has died, they have fallen asleep in the Lord. When they awaken, it will be in a new place and the journey continues. Our Christian faith teaches that life is eternal. You and Art are in our prayers.

“ I’m so sorry Lydia. I know Art was your soul mate and has left us far too early. He was also an amazing brother. Always willing to help in any way he could. He was my fellow techno geek eager to dive into sometimes pointless anomalies. The two of you were one of the main reasons I retired. Please know I’m here for you forever and always.

I remember as a child always being exited to see you and Art come by my parents house for a visit. Art always had amazing facts and information to share. Still to this day I think of the framed mirror with lights that he had given Mason and how amazing it was to stare into and feel like you were staring deep into space and millions of stars. He always had a smile and engaging commentary to add to any moment.

Our hearts go out Lydia and Art's family.
