“ I was with art when he learned how to drive that old ford falcon. After some bucking and stalling in the neighborhood roads he learned to drive it like a pro. Glad art came to some great pool parties also. A friend who will be sadly missed. My sincere condolences to the danz family.##imported-begin##Greg Brown##imported-end##

“ I only knew Art thru my sister Carol Regan, they were best buddies in High School and after. He was a trusted confidante for her. I met him a several times, Saturday afternoon buddies they were, because he would go to work at night. He was a good soul. A very good soul and I was just a young 20 something and I could tell the goodness in his heart. I always enjoyed those Saturdays and wishing Carol would ask me to tag along so I could spent time with Art before he would have to go to work, Art and wild Jimmy Mc on Saturday Afternoons. I am sure your family will miss you. Condolences to the Danz Family and all of your friends who will miss you. Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Janet Regan Le Digabel##imported-end##

“ In 2004 Art came to California and stayed with Karl, Lucas and myself for a few weeks. My daughter Heidi was already off to college. At that time one of my jobs was providing family respite for a special needs child named Nickolas on the weekends. This little guy communicated mostly in sign language. He was extremely smart and knew exactly how to manipulate everyone around him which could be at times both challenging and entertaining. The minute Art showed up and Nickolas started in with his stage-show I knew right then what a super special person Art was. He immediately spoke Nick's language and they were fast friends. I always have and always will cherish and love Art for this. Those of you who want to know specifics can ask Karl for the classic story of what happened at the grocery store.

Art also came up with two of my all time favorite sayings that will be applicable until the day I die.

#One: When there is little food in the house to pull together for a meal, and you whip up something and serve it, according to Art this was called... "Suddenly Something."

#Two: When you are driving along the freeway at 75 MPH and the cars are whooshing by the speed limit sign that reads 65 MPH, Art would say... "It's just a suggestion."

My heart breaks for all of us that were lucky enough to have him in our lives.##imported-begin##Cindy Fridriksson##imported-end##

“ Where do I begin? Just last night I was on facebook looking at all the pictures of you not even knowing you had passed yet. You were my best friend all the years we went to school together and after. Of course I was always the late night caller and you always picked up. This is devastating news and my heart breaks that we have lost such a lovable human being. My sincere sympathy to the entire Danz family.##imported-begin##Carol Regan##imported-end##

“ Dear Danz's,

So sorry for your loss; I'll be thinking of you all. I was great to see Karl a few years ago at a time when I had my mom out in CA with me but haven't seen the rest of you in at least 25 years. Time does fly. Other than loosing a son/brother I hope all is well with the rest of you. Take care of yourselves.

“ Where do I start? There are so many Artie memories...You were a special friend to me and so many others. Your Mom told us you called nearly every day announcing to her "It's Sonny Boy". I hope that somehow you know how much of a light (and delight) you were to your family, friends, neighbors. My heart breaks for your dear Mother Mary Lou and your entire amazing family - Brothers Karl & Michael, Sister-In-Law Sally, Nieces/Nephew- Katy, Michael, Lindsay, and so many more. A well-loved life cut far too short, but love and memories live on always. Perhaps you are hanging out with the top down with your Father Arthur, Brother Steve, and Cindy-Lou too on the other side of that 'rainbow bridge'...

*I miss you and will never forget all the good times we had with our circle of friends. How can I forget the 'made for me' turkey meatballs while all the rest had the beef variety; the patio (who needs a level?!), and so many other things (glug-a-gluga, "RD, RD, RD", 'Art the Eater', 'Snorasaurus', the parties, the NC Moonshine ("Floor Stripper"), 'Tempus Fugit'. To your family - May the love and closeness of family and friends help sustain you during this mournful time. The list of your wonderfulness goes on and on, same as fond memories of you will...###imported-begin###Monica Darrah

“ I just received word of Art's passing. I am deeply saddened by this news. We worked together a few years ago on a contingency project for AT&T and I had the opportunity to see first hand the passion that Art had for his job, and life in general. He will be missed, and I will be praying for his family, friends, and colleagues in the difficult days ahead. God Speed, Art.##imported-begin##Reed Krenn##imported-end##
