“ Tito Turo was a fatherly man and a good listener. The last time I talked to him in LB, he gave me tips on how to take care of one's heart. Thus, I would miss him and his sound advices whenever he would be in the Phil. My older cousins from Malasiqui, Pang. know him and extend their condolences to the family. Condolence...

“ I never knew Arturo Santillana, Sr. However, I do know his son Andre. If Andre is any measure as to how his father was, then I know he was a great man. I believe Arturo knew he was loved. I pray that your family knows the comfort of God during this time of great sadness. Try to remember the good times more so than anything else. He has left a great family legacy. My families love to you all.
