“ Im not exactly sure who your writing to in here per say. Sometimes im just not sure how to deal with all of this, and right now this feels...right. Ashley you have always been there for me ALWAYS. The last six years would have been unimaginable without you and daddy around. When we lost him i thought the world was over.. here i am just a year later with the same feeling in the pit of my stomach. Just this time its so much harder, so much more. I know there is nothing i can do to change what has happened now, and i know i will see you again one day. But for now i just want to remember you for how crazy amazing you were. You were the very best friend and person i have met in my life, and i will never forget you. I bet your happier than ever with mom and daddy.##imported-begin##Katie##imported-end##

“ To the grandparents and family of Ashley: We did not know Ashley but a relative attends our church and we learned of her tragic passing thru her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you. May God comfort you during this difficult time. With our love, Marion and Nancy Prather##imported-begin##Rev. Marion and Nancy Prather##imported-end##

“ To The Family, Please accept my deepest condolence for the loss of your dear love one. I would like to share some words of comfort from God's word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 assures us that those who have fallen asleep in death have the wonderful hope to live again. Also take comfort in Revelation 21:3,4, were at that time SICKNESS,MOURNING,DEATH,PAIN, and OUTCRY will be things of the past,GONE FOREVER. Please take comfort in these encouraging promises.##imported-begin##Ms.Jordan##imported-end##
