“ Avis was a sweet lady. Years ago I used to stop in and we would sit out in the yard and talk. A couple of times I helped them rake pine straw and they would let me have it for our yard. She loved her boys and I know the love was returned. I always thought she was so lucky to have her boys and grands around and I always hoped that someday I would have that kind of relationship with mine. I know that she has been important in your lives and that she will be missed.

Prayers for all in this time of sadness.

“ Avis, Thanks for the memories we shared for the past 75 years. You have always been there for me. When we were Seniors in high school at Bethesda you loaned me your most cherished dress to wear in the senior play. If we had a piece of candy we shared it. I told you all my secrets and dreams and I know you did that to me also. In all those years I never heard you talk about anyone else or take our Lord's name in vain. You lived a clean and wonderful life Betty Landress Britt
