“ Hannah Family,

My formative years included Avis and Clyde on many occasions. We occasionally visited the Tucker Church of God and Clyde actually "dunked" me in the baptismal pit there after I was saved. We belonged to Tucker Methodist, but sprinkling wouldn't do. Avis dunked us all at the lake -- we played and spent so much time at Lake Lanier. All of us -- adults and kids alike -- learned to water ski on their 18 hp fishing boat and we didn't stop for decades. As our water skills progressed, so did the toys and the hp of the boats. Avis and my Mother were as active as any of us. A loving environment surrounded us all.

It is with great fondness I will remember Aunt Avis. A song lyric I remember, "Thy soul belongs to God. Thy memory is mine."

Love to all,

“ Martha, I lost a dear friend, but I know she is smiling today and holding hands with Clyde. She will forever be missed. We had so many good times together and I will always have those memories. Words can not express the lost but you and the family are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Ann Thompson##imported-end##

“ Mama Avis.....I have so many memories that I could re-count as I think of you. Some of the best ones were when you took all of us grandkids to Six Flags each year and we had so much fun, you teaching me how to water ski at Lake Lanier, having Thanksgiving and Christmas at your house. No one could cook quite like you and you always made every occassion special. You always sent birthday cards - never missed one for any of us. We will all miss you so very much, but I know you are finally happy that you got to go to Heaven and be with Papa, Daddy and Uncle Marvin. You are one more angel watching over us now. I love you and miss you!##imported-begin##Julie & Darren Taylor & Terrie Truitt##imported-end##
