“ John, nothing you love is lost. Not really. Parents—they always no the right thing to say at the right time and are always there for us. You my brother was there for your mom and I am so proud of you and everything you did for your mom. I am so happy that I met mom Roonan and will forever remember her smile. I am so sorry for the lose of your mom but I am happy that she is no longer in pain. When our loved ones go on you can't hold them anymore than you can hold moonlight. But if they've touched you, if they're inside you, then they're still yours. The only things you ever really have are the ones you hold inside your heart, that's what you have with your mom John. Continued prayers for you and your family.

Your brother,
