“ I am truly saddened by Barbara's passing and very much regret that, living abroad, I will be unable attend her service. I've felt a trusted part of the Couch family for over 20 years, and so it feels to me that one of my own has departed. In fact Barbara, with Jim, was of the best and kindest friends I've ever known. She was a most remarkable woman, sincere, thoughtful, generous, witty, decent, highly intelligent, and family-oriented. I will miss her greatly, more than I can say, and as well miss the partnership represented by Jim and Barbara together. My condolences especially to Jim, Kim, Amanda, and Tammy--and Aunt Sue.##imported-begin##Robert Gaissert##imported-end##

“ Jim I will keep you all in my prayers! I am Christophers Aunt Willie & I just wanted to say that Bill Hand Loved His Aunt Barbara very much! Although he just went to Heaven back in February his Life & his Aunt Barbara's will be truly missed! This family is one that Loves one another unconditionally & I'm proud to say I've always felt like I am part of it! Jim & family I am here for if you need a friend to talk to day or night! May God be with you all!

Love,

Willie K. Russell
