“ Dear Lenny and Barb's family,
My heart is filled with sadness today. A year ago today I lost my husband Fred and today I got an email about Barb. My life will never be the same without him as I'm sure yours will be filled with grief for a long time to come. The pain of loss will diminish over time and the happy memories will surface. Please accept my love and sincere sympathies in the loss of Barb. One of my favorite memories was when Lenny and Barb came to Vegas and she and I went to see MamaMia. We had a blast and ate giant gooey dessert after the show. " Death leaves a heart ache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." author: Robert Ingersol.
Be comforted by the fact that she is in God's Eternal care and reunited with all who preceded her, especially her young granddaughter she loved so much. God Bless You All.

“ We are deeply saddened by Barbara's death. She was such a nice lady and had a positive attitude. Her easy laugh and interest in everyone around her will be missed. My world was richer with her in it.

“ What a truly wonderful & beautiful woman-inside & out-a rare jewel! I know just how much you will be missed, but I also know that you will live on forever in our hearts & in the lives of your wonderful family & ALL who knew & loved you-for to know you WAS to love you! It was a pleasure to have had the opportunity for our paths to cross in this lifetime...and I look forward to the time when, once again, we shall meet! I Love You!

Know that the flower which has grown to the other side of the fence, is blooming there!###imported-begin###Michele Brantley DeHart###imported-end##
