She grew up and raised her family during the depression but they never lacked for love and the things that mattered. She worked in the fields and at home, raising a family during the hardest of times. Though she only worked at a public job for a few years she was a hard working lady. She had a vegetable garden and beautiful flowers into her 90's. She was a quiet and unpretentious woman who loved God and her family and friends. She was independent and wanted to take care of herself even when she was in her declining years. She was a great cook and well known for her cornbread dressing, pineapple cake and fresh coconut cake. All who came to her home could always find peanut butter cookies in her cookie jar. That was always a favorite of the grandchildren and great grandchildren. There is no long list of organizations or great accomplishments in the business world but she had more love of family and friends than could be listed. She was a faithful member of Lenora Baptist Church for many years. She was a member of Rosebud Women's Club and Widows Club. Mrs. Bentley was a great seamstress and made many beautiful quilts, the last one- a beautiful cathedral window, having been handmade when she was 94 years old. We have all been blessed to have known and loved and been loved by this wonderful Christian lady, wife , mother, and friend. The family will receive friends from 2 PM to 4 PM and 6 PM to 8 PM Sunday, January 8, 2012 at Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 2246 Wisteria Drive, Snellville, Ga. 30078. 770-979-5010. “ I am so sorry for your loss. From reading about her life, this loving person will truly be missed. The bible helps us to see that The God of Love has put eternity into our hearts. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) That means we were meant to live forever. Would the God of Love give us that desire, and then not allow us to fulfill it? No! Because if Adam and Eve would not have sinned, we would not be getting sick, suffering unforeseen occurrence, or dying. 1John 4:8, tell us that the God of Love will fulfill his original purpose. Jesus Christ while here on earth spoke about the resurrection hope in John 5:28,29, that means that we will have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. What will conditions be like here on earth when this happens? Please read Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8, to receive the answer. I hope that this information and scriptures within, will give you and your loved ones some comfort and assured hope. “ I have such fond memories of Mrs. Bobbie teaching me in Sunday school as a boy and visiting in her and Mr. Albert's home. I believe she was a saint of God and will be missed but remembered by the many whose lives she touched.
