“ *Dear Jacquelyn, Dianne & Family,
I wish so much I had at least a chance to have your mother smile on me one more time. Her eyes always seemed to only to shine on you whenever she was talking to you - she gave her full loving attention and acceptance/ She was a true example of Jesus' unconditional love!
I thank God for her love and chicken dumplings and biscuits! After she taught Randy, at least 25 years ago, how to make one of his favorite dishes- chicken dumplings- he made it at least every other month and your Mom always came to mind. I will be hard without her for a family that was more important than self. Love,
