“ I was so sorry to learn about Ben's passing. Though it has been since 1969 that we worked together I have always remembered his good nature and musical talent. Ben spent several summers in the late 1960's leading music at Myrtle Beach's Sherwood Family Campground's Sunday morning worship services. I was a high school student spending the summers with my sister who lived at Windy Hill Beach, and I got to play piano for those services. In addition, Ben directed the summer choir at First Baptist of Ocean Drive Beach (now N. Myrtle Beach), and I played organ. I still have a black and white photo taken of Ben and me working together at the beach. My sympathy to his family and friends.

“ I knew who Ben Elbe was almost from the beginning of my years at Florida Bible College. His reputation preceded him. :) Later on in Miami, Ben and Cindy came to SW Community Church where I had the joy of getting to know them. I loved when Ben and I sang or he accompanied me. So much music in one package. So thankful he is rejoicing with Jesus. Loved his Facebook notes from "Uncle Ben" as he tried to encourage others.

“ My heart just sank when I heard the news about Ben. I was very fortunate to have served along side Ben at Amazing Grace Baptist all those years. He helped me a lot in our music ministry. I'm going to miss his beautiful Bass voice. I am going to miss his piano playing. I am going to miss his prayer support, his corny jokes, his ever-present words of encouragement, and that big smile of his. He was a dear friend. I know that God has a special work for Ben up there. Prayers for the Elbe family in these difficult days and months ahead. May God bless you, Mandy Benson

“ Uncle Ben, I didn't get to spend much time around you, but always enjoyed the times I did get to be around you and your kids. We love you and happy you are with the Lord. Big hugs to Aunt Cynde and the rest, we are so sorry for your loss. God bless, Brian Brown.

“ Ben was a great friend and a son of consolation like Barnabas was in the new testament. I remember meeting with him in 1999 at his house in Dawsonville and he was a godly Christian man. I loved Ben Elbe. The entire family of the Elbes' are wonderful Christian people.

“ I've known Ben, and his sisters since Florida Bible College days. I met his parents when we lived in MO. Ben has always been an encourager, and someone who you knew really cared. He will be missed by all who knew him.

“ I remember Ben when we attended Bible college together. He was a fun, cheerful guy. Although we only saw each other a few times since our college days, I always enjoyed renewing our friendship.

What an amazing and gifted gentleman. Mr. Ben was a dear friend. My brother, Chris Edwards, worked for him as a mechanic many many years ago. I guess we've known Ben and Cynde since 1980's from going to the Tabernacle. Recently Ben played and sang each week at Applewood in Lawrenceville where my parents live. They were so excited and let us know every time he came and we enjoyed visiting about the good ole days. Our prayers are with you. Heaven is rejoicing. I bet Ben is meeting Chris and momma of course after greeting his Lord and Savior. We love you...Dale and Pat Massingill

I did not know Ben well ... but was always remembered his jokes (so much like his father, Emil), and his constant smile, easy laugh, and encouraging words. He seemed to love to speak about the correlations of the Jewish Temple and the life of Christ. From what I remember, he loved to sing and play piano. He was one of life's memorable characters, a beautiful person.
