“ My heart is with Betty, Allen and their family. I was blessed to grow up knowing the Still family, and Bernard Still made the world a better place for all who knew him.. with a heart of gold, a kind and gentle spirit, a smile for everyone. I'll never forget seeing him at Still's Grocery all the time, the quiet country store in Harbins where everyone knew one another.. and at our beloved Ebenezer Church on Sunday's. It was all about family, love, and respect.. being there for our neighbors.. Bernard and Betty will always be in the hearts of so many who love them..wonderful memories of them and their precious boys Randall and Allen. God ve with you in the days ahead and always... Love & Hugs, Pat Everett Bridweii

“ I was privileged to have been the pastor of Bernard Still and to know many of the family members. He was a good friend and supporter. He served his Lord, his family, his country and his community well. I pray for Betty and the family.
